

Gudaga project

Understanding the health & development of Campbelltown's Aboriginal babies.

The project is collecting information on Aboriginal babies and their mums during the baby's first year of life. It is also looking at how the babies grow and when and how mums and their babies make use of health services.

Want to get involved?
Contact Jane Anderson
(Project Officer)

4634 4070

cheryl.anderson@swsahs.nsw.gov.au